"A library outranks any other one thing a community can do to benefit its people. It is a never failing spring in the desert" - Andrew Carnegie

World Earth Day – 22 April

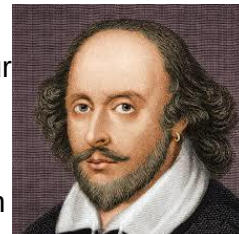

Monday 22nd of April is World Earth Day. Each World Earth Day celebrates a different theme with this year's being 'Planet vs Plastics'. World Earth Day demonstrates support for environmental protection. It includes a wide range of events coordinated globally by Earthday.org including 1 billion people in more than 193 countries.

Shakespeare's Birthday – 23 April

The 23rd of April sees the celebration William Shakespeare's birthday. Born 460 years ago in 1564, the playwright and poet is widely celebrated in English Literature. His works include 38 plays, 2 narrative poems, 154 sonnets and a variety of other poems. Shakespeare is studied nationally due to his rich and diverse nature of work. The strong themes that run through each piece of his work still play key parts to modern society making Shakespeare's work timeless and universal. Swift or Shakespeare? Test your knowledge in the LRC: can you identify which quote is from The Bard and which is a lyric by America's Sweetheart? Come in and play the game!

Ruby's Final Sign-Off

"Thank you for allowing me to be a Student Librarian! It has been such a pleasure to edit the LRC News alongside Mrs Adams this year!"

And thanks to you too Ruby, for being a stalwart in the LRC, not only with the newsletter but all the support given to Mrs Gardiner during the busy lunchtime sessions. We wish you all the luck for the future! – Mrs Adams and Mrs Gardiner

April is Stress Awareness Month

Stress Awareness month has been held every April since 1992 in order to raise awareness of the causes, the impacts, and ways to combat stress. It is a great opportunity for people to have an open conversation about their own stresses. Within the LRC, there are many books on identifying and managing stress.
