Application overview

Your 'Application status' helps you keep track of your progress.

As you add information to each tile, the percentage complete updates each time you mark a section as complete.

You don't need to complete the application straight away; you can log in and out at any time until you're finished.

Application overview

The application form is responsive to make it easier to complete.

Once you've completed 'Where you live' if your permanent residence is in the UK, you'll also see the 'Diversity and inclusion' and 'Extra activities' sections to complete.

All sections must be marked as 'Complete' to send to your school or college that you may be linked to for review. You must complete all mandatory questions to mark a section as complete (they have a *).

The application form is organized into three main sections: Profile, Experience, and Personal Statement.

Profile Section:

- Personal details: Name, age, title and gender. Status: Start this section.
- Nationality details: Birthplace and nationalities. Status: Start this section.
- Where you live: Tell us about your address history. Status: Section in progress (indicated by a blue bar and an 'i' icon).
- Contact details: Address, email, and telephone. Status: Section in progress (indicated by a blue bar and an 'i' icon).
- Supporting information: So that providers know how to support you during your studies. Status: Start this section.
- Finance & funding: Tell us how you'll fund your study. Status: Start this section.
- Diversity & inclusion: Additional equality information. Status: Start this section.
- More about you: Tell us about any circumstances that you might need support for during your studies. Status: Start this section.

Experience Section:

- Education: Qualifications and periods of study. Status: Section complete (indicated by a green bar and a checkmark icon).
- Employment: Paid employment. Status: Section complete (indicated by a green bar and a checkmark icon).
- Extra activities: Taken part in any activities to prepare you for higher education? Status: Start this section.

Personal Statement Section:

- Personal statement: Why do you want to study this subject? Status: Start this section.

Application overview

The list on the left of each section will show which sections are completed (with a tick), which are in progress (with a half-moon), and which have yet to be started (no icon).

Click on the  throughout for help text to provide advice about what to put.

The screenshot shows the 'Nationality details' section of a UCAS application. The left sidebar contains a list of sections: Personal details, Nationality details (highlighted), Where you live, Contact details, Supporting information, Finance and funding, Diversity and inclusion, More about you, Education (with a green checkmark), Employment (with a green checkmark), Extra activities, and Personal statement. The main content area is titled 'What is your country of birth? *' and includes a dropdown menu. Below this is 'What is your nationality? *' with explanatory text and another dropdown menu. Further down is 'Dual nationality' with text and a third dropdown menu. At the bottom, there is a checkbox 'Mark this section as complete *' and a 'Save this section' button.

Personal statement.

What is a personal statement?

- A personal statement supports your application to study at a university or college. It's a chance for you to articulate why you'd like to study a particular course or subject, and what skills and experience you possess that show your passion for your chosen field.
- If you're applying for an apprenticeship – you probably won't need to write a personal statement, but you'll need to prepare a CV and will need a covering letter which will include many of the same ideas as a personal statement.
- <https://www.ucas.com/undergraduate/applying-university/writing-personal-statement/how-write-personal-statement>

Personal statement – start early

Include:

- academic achievements, past and present
- why you're interested in the subject area
- your knowledge of the subject area and enthusiasm to go beyond the syllabus
- what you enjoy about studying
- details of your independent study skills.

If you get invited to an interview take your personal statement with you and be prepared to answer questions about it.

The questions universities and colleges will ask:

- have you chosen the right subject for the right reasons?
- do you have a range of interests?
- does the personal statement confirm your interest in the subject?
- have you studied independently?
- are you motivated and committed?
- do you possess good numeracy and literacy skills?

Personal statements are checked against thousands of others, so don't copy someone else's.

What's the Personal Statement all about?

- You're telling admissions staff why you're suitable to study at their university or college.
- It's important to remember you can only write one personal statement – it's the same for each course you apply for. So, avoid mentioning any universities by name.
- If you've chosen similar subjects, talk about the subject in general, and try not to mention courses titles. If you've chosen a variety of subjects, just write about common themes, like problem solving or creativity.

Here are some ideas to help you get started:

- Look at course descriptions and identify the qualities, skills, and experience it requires – you can use these to help you decide what to write about.
- Tell the reader why you're applying – include your ambitions, as well as what interests you about the subject, the course provider, and higher education.
- Think about what makes you suitable – this could be relevant experience, skills, or achievements you've gained from education, work, or other activities.
- Include any clubs or societies you belong to – sporting, creative, or musical.
- Mention any relevant employment experience or volunteering you've done, such as vInspired Awards, Step Together, or Project Trust. Work experience and volunteering | Undergraduate | UCAS
- If you've developed skills through Duke of Edinburgh, ASDAN, National Citizen Service, the Crest Awards scheme, or young enterprise, tell them.
- If you took part in a higher education taster course, placement, or summer school, or something similar, include it.

How to write your personal statement

- Your personal statement should be unique, so there's no definite format for you to follow here – just take your time. Here are some guidelines for you to follow, but remember your personal statement needs to be 'personal'.
- Write in an enthusiastic, concise, and natural style – nothing too complex.
- Try to stand out, but be careful with humour, quotes, or anything unusual – just in case the admissions tutor doesn't have the same sense of humour as you.
- Structure your info to reflect the skills and qualities the universities value most – use the course descriptions to help you.
- Check the character and line limit – you have 4,000 characters and 47 lines. Some word processors get different values if they don't count tabs and paragraph spacing as individual characters.
- Proofread aloud, and get your teachers, advisers, and family to check. Then redraft it until you're happy with it, and the spelling, punctuation, and grammar are correct.
- You should write your personal statement first in word, then copy and paste it into your online application once you're happy with it. Make sure you save it regularly, as the website times out after 35 minutes of inactivity.

Personal Statement – the facts

Admissions tutors are primarily interested in your academic ability and potential. They want to see that you are truly committed to the subject or subjects you want to study at university but it's not enough just to say that you have a passion for something: you need to show tutors how you have engaged with your subject, above and beyond whatever you have studied at school or college. This can include any relevant extra-curricular activities.

Try to avoid writing your personal statement as though you are ticking things off a list. There is no checklist of required achievements, and tutors will not just scan what you have written to look for key words or phrases. Tutors will read your personal statement to try to understand what has motivated you to apply for their course. It's a good idea to evaluate your experiences, to show what you have learned from them and how they have helped develop your understanding of your subject.

Extra-curricular activities are only helpful in so far as they demonstrate the selection criteria for your course

NOT “What have I done / read” BUT “WHAT HAVE I LEARNT FROM IT”

I'm applying to different courses at different universities – how should I write my personal statement?

If you are thinking of applying for completely different courses at different universities (eg Physics and Accounting, or Biology and Music) we'd encourage you to reconsider. It's important to choose a subject area that you really want to study, and focus on that one area when making your applications. Also, you can only write one personal statement which will be seen by all the universities to which you apply, so it needs to be relevant for all your courses.

If you are thinking of applying for related courses at different universities then we suggest that you avoid using course titles in your personal statement. We recommend that you write about your interest in the general course themes, and how you have engaged with relevant subject areas, so that your personal statement is equally relevant for each of your course choices.

Completed Personal Statement

- When you have completed your personal statement show it to your tutor and ask for advice.
- You should also ask relevant subject teachers for their opinion.
- Mrs Webb and the Sixth Form Team are also happy to read your personal statements.
- Do NOT ask lots of different teachers for their advice – stick with one!
- ALL THE WAY THROUGH THE PROCESS KEEPING TALKING TO YOUR TUTOR or MRS WEBB, MR MARTIN, MR BORNOFF, MRS MIFFLIN, MR PILLING or MRS PEARCE – WE ARE HAPPY TO HELP!

When your statement is complete – ask for advice!

You're waiting for confirmation of your choices. If you meet the offer conditions, the university/college will confirm your place. Send them your results if requested.

There is a link to 'Withdraw the whole application'.

If you withdraw, you will not be able to apply again during the academic year, and you will not be eligible for Clearing.

Do not use this if you wish to add another choice or apply somewhere else.

Follow the onscreen warnings or speak to your adviser to ensure you are taking the right action.

The screenshot shows the 'WITHDRAW YOUR APPLICATION' page for the 2022 Undergraduate application. At the top right, it displays 'Your Personal ID number' as 1495042705. A breadcrumb trail shows 'Overview' and 'Withdraw your application'. A warning message states: 'You are about to permanently withdraw your application and all your choices. Please check this is what you want to do.' Below this, a text block explains that withdrawing the application means universities will no longer consider it and no automatic refund will be given. A section titled 'Confirm why do you want to permanently withdraw your application *' contains a dropdown menu. The dropdown is open, showing three options: 'I want to add another choice or apply to a different university or college', 'I want to submit a new application for this academic cycle', and 'All my choices have been unsuccessful and I do not want to apply elsewhere in this academic cycle'. The first option is highlighted in blue.

All the universities and colleges you've applied to will no longer consider your application and you will not receive an automatic refund. Withdrawing your application does not constitute a cancellation for the purposes of the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013. Please see frequently asked questions if you wish to cancel your application.
